

that she is also able to act like him. She knows the medicine to kill the child in mother's womb. She will say in front of people that Maniram's mother tries this in her past. So to save his mother's respect, he is ready to marry Kamala. In this way, Menaka teach him a lesson.

3.0 Conclusion:

The title of the Article is Indian novel Matsyagandha : The importance of the content.

After the discussion, the result is that the content of the novel is important. It deals not only the problem of caste system, it also give a path to solve the problems. People should never underestimate their power. Like Menaka, everybody should remain their self-respect. This novel is a good addition to Indian Literature.

Bibliography:

Main Source

Homen Borgohain , Matsyagandha, Student's Stores, Guwahati (2000)

Secondary Source:

Brinchi Kumar Barua , History of Assamese Literatur, Sahitya Akademi ,New Delhi (2012)

Vinayak Krishna Gokak ,The concept of Indian Literature, Munshiram Manoharlal publisher's pvt. Ltd, New Delhi (1979)

Pramod K Nayer, Studying Literature an Introduction to fiction and poetry, Orient Blackswan pvt.ltd, Hyderabad (2013)